PERSECUTIONS HELD THREAT TO PEACE BY LOCAL PASTOR

Peace at any price has brought civilization to the brink of disaster and unless the people of the world are awakened to the danger of oppressed minorities in countries like Germany, they have little hope or resistance. This in effect was the substance of the sermon preached by Rev. J. P. Love at All Saints Episcopal Church on Sunday following Armistice. Resentment over Germany's treatment of Jews led the Episcopal minister to deliver this caustic sermon on world conditions.

"Thou shalt love thy neighbor as ayself" Matthew 22:29.

Last Friday this nation together with a large part of the world again celebrated the anniversary of that memorable day twenty years ago when the command "cease firing" rang the whole length of the embattlements and brought to a close the greatest destruction of human life the world has ever seen.

We in this country rejoiced on November 11, 1938 that the war to end war had brought peace; and we resolved then and there that as individuals and as a nation we would never be drawn into another conflict.

Treaties, some just and others perhaps unjust, were carefully drawn and seriously signed, and, as a nation, we had much to do with the writing of those documents.

The League of Nations for the preserving of peace, which the United States, as the leading democracy, fostered and approved, came into being, but we refused—rightly or wrongly—to become a member of that League.

'Tis true, representatives of the United States have been present at League sessions, but without vote or voice in the assembly. Notwith-

Mayor Issues Red Cross Proclamation

Each year Americans in every community are called upon to take part in a great nationwide movement to relieve human suffering and raise health standards in this county.

I refer to the work done by the Red Cross.

It is not necessary, I know, for me to remind citizens of our community that the work of the Red Cross is a vital contribution to our community welfare.

Both from the standpoint of the year-round program and work on a national basis such as the relief for victims of disasters, the fight against epidemics, public health nursing for isolated communities, or assistance to service men or disabled veterans, Red Cross aid to those needing help has proved its worth

For years our community has had a share in this work through contributions made by local citizens.

The annual membership Roll Call of the Red Cross is from Armistice day through Thanksgiving day.

Your support during this period will insure a continuation of Red Cross work here and in other parts of the country.

I am pleased, therefore, as Mayor of Cameron to designate this period as a time when all members will be asked to renew thir memberships, and those who have not enrolled before are asked to add their names to the ranks of Red Cross members in our community.

CHAS. C. SMITH,
Mayor City of Cameron, Texas.

Thanksgiving Offering For Buckner Home Due

Donations of clothing food and other articles collected each Thanksgiving by the Baptist churches of Milam county as an offering to Buckner Orphan Home, are to be brought this year to F. J. Beckerman's store in Cameron, it was announced here Monday by Miss Gussie Rowlett.

The offering must be in by noon Monday, November 21, in order that the donations might be packed that afternoon to be taken to the home in Dallas immediately afterward. Baptist people in Milam county plan to make this a big Thanksgiving offering.

Thanksgiving Service At Christian Church

The United Thanksgiving Service will be held this year on Wednesday, November 23, at 8 o'clock at the Christian Church with Rev. A. J. McCary, newly appointed pastor for the First Methodist Church of Cameron bringing the message.

The Thanksgiving offering will be devoted to the relief of Jewish refugees expelled from Germany.

Miss Catherine Mode, Baylor University student from Cameron, was reelected to the presidency of the Console Club at a meeting of the group recently. She held the same office in the organization last year.

W. M. McCULLIN DIES IN SAN ANTONIO

W. M. McCullin, 72, died at his home in San Antonio at 8:53 o'clock Monday evening, November 15. He had been ill for a number of years. Funeral services were conducted on Wednesday. Mr. McCullin spent his early life in Louisana and raised a large family of children, part of whom still reside in that state. He moved to San Antonio twenty years ago where he resided until the time of his death.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. W. M. McCullin; seven daughters. Mrs. Grady Rogers of Alexandria, La., Mrs. Dennis Ryland of Poland, La., Mrs. E. D. McDonald of Houston, Mrs. Albert Atwood of Baytown. Mrs. Charlie Secord of South Texas. Mrs. Roland Ranney of San Antonio and Miss Ethel Swain of San Antonio; seven sons, Rev. Walter McCullin of Grand Cane, La., J. B. McCullin of Vivian, La., H. C. Swain of Baytown, A. W. McCullin of Minerva, F. R. McCullin of Port Arthur, and Jim McCullin of Baytown. His son, A. W. McCullin of Minerva is a prominent business man of that community and is well known in Milam county.

Lions Sponsor Game

The Cameron Lions Club is sponsoring a football game to be played on Tuesday night, November 22, on the Yoe High Athletic field between the Taylor Black Ducks and the Cameron Bull Dogs. Proceeds from this game will be used for supplying glasses for needy school children in Milam county.

We Got a Persimmon

Frank Zolkosky who lives in the sand country east of the river has made a specialty for years of producing large Japanese persimmons, one of which was presented the editor of the Herald this week. Mr. Zolkosky has these persimmons for sale and those who like this fruit would do well to visit his farm.

Rotary Club Hears A. & M. Speaker Wednesday

Conservation of soil in the impounding of rainfalls on farm land through the medium of terracing is vital to the prosperity of the country and the maintenance of agriculture, said C. (Dutch) Hone of A & M College who spoke to Cameron Rotarians Wednesday.

Mr. Hone is a graduate of Texas A & M College and during his student days was a football and baseball star and in his senior year was captain of the Texas Aggies. Dutch was born and reared on a farm at Brenham and being a native Texan is vitally interested in the soil conservation program now in operation through the extension department of Texas A & M. His hair is generously sprinkled with gray although he is still a young man. He caught the fancy of a number of ex-students of A & M includ-

AMERICANISM

The American's Creed

In 1918 William Tyler Page wrote and caused to be accepted by the House of Representatives his "The American Creed," which needs emphasis today.

"I believe in the United States of of America, as a government of the people, by the people, for the people; whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic; a soverign Nation of many soverign states; a perfect union, one and inseparable; established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes.

"I therefore believe it is my duty to my country to love it; to support its Constitution; to obey its laws; to respect its flag, and to defend it against all enemies."

The American Creed published above is an extract from an address delivered by Rev. T. F. O'Sullivan before the Cameron Rotary Club on last Wednesday.

Paving Plans Are Advanced

Immediate preparation of plans and specifications to submit application for grant of federal money for street paving was authorized by the City Council Tuesday night and Joe J. Rady of Fort Worth, engineer, will make the plans at once.

This action was taken by the City Council following its previous meeting at which time the body instructed Dan Tyson, secretary, to file application for the federal grant.

Mr. Rady will proceed at once with surveys and compile information necessary to complete the application. Property owners may be asked to finance a small portion of the program which includes several miles of first class streets in addition to the improvement of existing thoroughfares.

SUBSIDY CHECKS

Subsidy checks, in the amount of $136,208.27, representing approximately 1350 applications for payment, have been received in the office of the Milam County Agent through November 12, 1938. There have been 1724 checks received to date.

COTTON REPORT

A census report sent in by Ray O'Neill, special agent of the Department of Commerce, shows a decrease of 9,130 bales of cotton for this year compared with the number of bales ginned last year in this county prior to November. Before Nov. 1, 1937 there had been 41,808 bales ginned and druing the same period this year, only 32,678 bales have been ginned.

Feature Film of Year Here Sunday

Hailed as another Capra triumph, Columbia's screen version of the Geo. S. Kaufman-Moss Hart Pulitzer Prize play, "You Can't Take It With You," opens at the Cameron Theatre with a cast which includes Jean Arthur, James Stewart, Lionel Barrymore, Edward Arnold, Mischa Auer, Ann Miller and numerous others.

"You Can't Take It With You" was produced and directed by Frank Capra from the screen play by Robert Riskin. These Columbia filmmakers have been lauded time and again for their "It Happened One Night," "Lady for A Day," "Lost Horizon" and "Mr. Deeds Goes to Town.' "You Can't Take It With You,' based on the stage success for which Columbia paid $200,000, is said to exceed even the previous efforts of the two brilliant collaborators.

The new film deals with the lovable and perfectly delightful Vanderhof family, which believes in doing

Rev. A. J. McCary New Pastor at Methodist Church

Rev. A. J. McCary is the new pastor at the First Methodist Church having arrived in Cameron with his family last week end. Rev. McCary comes to Cameron from Jacksonville where he served as Presiding Elder of the Jacksonville District of the Texas Conference.

Rev. McCary is prominent in Methodist circles in Texas. He served 4 years as pastor of St. Paul's Methodist Church in Tyler, was pastor of Central Methodist Church of Houston for 4 years and has served as pastor in Bay City and the Central Methodist Church in Galveston from which point he was named Presiding Elder of the Jacksonville District.

He preached his first sermon as pastor of the Cameron church on Sunday morning. He succeeds Rev. J. Coy Williams as pastor here, and has been well received by his congregation and the people of Cameron.

Rev. McCary was a guest of Rev. J. P. Love, pastor of All Saints Episcopal Church at the Rotary club on Wednesday.

County Red Cross Subscriptions Only 1% Population

The Herald has been called upon to make a correction in a story published last week regarding the Red Cross radio program.

In Milam county contributions received last year amounted to only 1 per cent of the population when computed in memberships of $1 each. This means that actually only 400 people were enrolled as members of the Red Cross, average. In the issue of last week the statement was made 4000 memberships were sold. This was an error in memberships sold last year, which based on the average set forth above would represent 400 instead of 4000. This correction is made to avoid the appearance that money is not needed in this vital call for aid to less fortunate citizens.

Chest Gift Increase Is Shown

Continued good success was reported by the central committee directing the community chest drive as contributons continued to pile up. The chest fund was far more than half subscribed as additional lists of contributors were submitted for publication this week.

WATER DEAL IS CAUSE

A bond issue calling for an expenditure of $180,000 to be used to purchase the property of the Community Public Service Company has been called for Tuesday, December 6.

The City Council ordered the election at its meeting here on Tuesday night culminating a long period of negotiation with the water company regarding the value of the plant and whether the company would consider sale of its properties. In September of 1936 the people of Cameron gave the city $150,000 to purchase the water plant. At that time no agreement had been reached with the utility company and no price had been fixed on the value of the water plant. The election in 1936 was inadequate because it only authorized $150,000. An additional amount of $30,000 is needed for the purchase of the water plant and it will be necessary to hold an additional election as all bonds to be used in the purchase of the plant must be voted at the same election.

Engineers have reported to the City Council and have fixed a value of $171,614 on the properties of the company. The additional $8,386 is to be used for the installation of a filtration plant and additional improvements, it was said.

The bonds proposed by the election are to be revenue bearing and are to be paid out of the operation of the plant.

LIGHT VOTE IS CAST IN GENERAL ELECTION

Returns from the general election held on Tuesday, November 8, disclosed that no voting occurred and few republicans took time to cast their ballot. W. standing our cancellation of huge war debts which other nations owed us and our making of immense new loans to European nations for rehabilitation, most of which have never been repaid, for a decade, we prospered financially but spiritually and morally we were at a low ebb.

About ten years ago the bubble of inflation suddenly burst; fortunes were swept away over night; many of moderate means saw their businesses crumble and their savings melt away; factories closed, farm products plummeted to an all-time low, millions who depended on a daily wage were thrown out of work. The depression was world wide.

In their extremmity, as is so often the case, many turned to God, and those who were of a receptive mind and listened to the "still small voice,, received consolation and strength to endure hardship and to work to bring about a better day.

Yet the great majority of individuals in so-called Christian nations either blamed God for their self-inflicted troubles or acted as though they thought their present situation was a matter in which the Heavenly Father had no interest whatever.

Well, you and I know what has happened and is still coming to pass. Commuism seemed to be flourishing in Russia and was beginning to take root elsewhere.

Fear of the Red doctrine obsessed several other nations, and rightly so. They began to prepare for what they feared might come their way. Then Dictators appeared in Germany, Italy, Japan, who with agitated voices and swash-buckling ways excited the peoples of their several countries, and we soon heard of organizations of brown shirts and black shirts.

Under such leadership treaties with other nations regarding armament were disregarded. While these, now totalitarian states, built up powerful war machines, millions of men worked to produce equipment; other millions were recruited in army, navy and air forces.

There was plenty of employment in those countries and seeming prosperity and the people for the most part "heiled' their dictators.

As the power of these several leaders grew and their nations' military strength tremendously increased, they began to covet and that bred hatred and a consuming desire to acquire by force whatever they wanted.

In the meantime, other nations, taking their treaty obligations seriously and desiring to remain at peace, refused to be frightened by hearing what was going on in these three nations.

China did not arm, she had a treaty with certain powerful and peaceful nations which guaranteed her integrity; ours was one.

Ethiopia had no idea she would be gobbled up—Was she not a member of the League of Nations and safe if she harmed no one?

Austria was growing uneasy but her boundaries had been agreed to and her independence assured by the same League.

And Czechoslovaka had no fear for France and England had promised her help if she were molested.

There is no use going into detail—we are all perfectly aware how this unholy alliance of notions led by power-crazed, fiery-mouthed mad men have bullied and robbed, murdered and pillaged until we now relaize there is no extent to which they will not go, to enforce their iniquitous demands.

Once powerful England and France have time and again given way to their coercive threats. Not through cowardice, but konwing they were inadequately prepared to defend themselves against ruthless air raids, with bombs destroying their cities and poison gas killing innocent women and children.

But, thank God, England and France are aroused and we, temporarily secure, are beginning to wake up to the fact that we cannot hope to be exempt from attack from without and from within, when these war-mad rulers point our way.

There is one more thing I want you to consider before I unburden my conclusions. These three nations seem to have lost all regard for the Fatherhood of God and consequently for the brothehood of man.

Japan—not a Christian nation—cannot be excused, for while she claims that her intentions are to benefit and bring happiness to the Chinese people, her soldiers are continually committing crimes too terrible to mention against women and children who fall victims to their lust, while Japanese soldiers often for practice bayonette their prisoners of war, if the accounts of eye witnesses, our own Christian Missionaries are to be believed.

We shrink in horror—do not want to read about things—yet it is positively dangerous for us personally, to stop our ears and think no such evil exists.

In this undeclared war we, by selling bombs and planes to Japan, have helped to crush China.

In Italy the once powerful Pontiff of the largest branch of the Christian Church has been all but silenced by the braggart and unchristian Mussolini.

It's true, the Pope has criticized several times the treatment of members of the Roman Church in Germany and Austria, but to no avail, for imprisonment and persecution are still the fate of Roman Catholics and proestants alike who in Germany attempt to render to God the things that are God's.

The treatment of Jewish people in Italy is becoming very severe notwithstanding the protests of the religious leader of more than 99 per cent of the population.

One of the darkest pages in history was the Italian conquest of Ethiopia.

And what about Germany—That nation is now governed by a mad-man upheld by a powerful clique of half men, half demons, anxious and eager to do Hitler's bidding. Hatred—revenge—robbery—pillage—murder—is their creed and now, with every nation in Europe either bowing down to them or cringing at their feet, Hitler, Goering and Company have launched this latest attack on the helpless Jewish people in the countries over which they rule.

You and I have all read about this in recent dispatches from Germany itself and if you have the same sort of blood in your veins that courses through mine, your indignation is now at the boiling point. This I feel sure is a normal and healthy evidence of every loyal disciple of Jesus of Nazareth, the Jew.

Now what are you and I as Christians going to do about it? What can we do? Just complacently shrug our shoulders and say—"it's none of my business?" Or, as selfish, cowardly pacifists say—"I will have no part in anything that savors of force?" Or, will any one of us dare say "As a follower of Jesus Christ who when he was reviled reviled not again and who was led as a lamb to the slaughter and opened not his mouth, I have decided to do nothing?"

My friends, Jesus Christ was no coward. He was fearless in his dealings with wrong and oppression. It is true that he submitted to death at the hands of his enemies, yet this was in order that his sacrifice might, if you and I are repentantly willing, cleanse us from all sin—yes, even our sins of omission—if, we are repentant.

Now not one of us is so foolish as to think that in our meek submission to any earthly power that oppresses, robs and murders our neighbors we will emulate our Lord and become a propitiation for anyone's sins. Such a thought would be blasphemy!

The one thing that Jesus of Nazareth emphasized next to man's love toward God was Mankind's regard for the welfare of his fellow man. Jesus lived and taught neighborliness.

A definition indelibly written in my mind is this—My neighbor is any one who needs my help.

When Jesus was asked by a Hebrew who disregarded many of his fellow Jews and hated those who lived in an adjoining country, "Who is my neighbor?" Jesus replied by telling the story of the Good Samaritan, recorded in the 10th chapter of St Luke's Gospel. It would be well for you to read it again—thoughtfully.

As you well know, the Jews hated the Samaritans and the Samaritans hated the Jews.

In the story there was a Jew beaten and robbed and left helpless on the road side. Two fellows citizens, fellow Churchmen, of the unfortunate man saw him, but through fear or selfishness gave him no help.

Now of course the Priest and the Levite would have been horror struck if they had been told that they were accessories after the fact, or contributors to the sufferings of this abused Jew, in that they made no move nor even showed any desire to help him.

Can you not read, as I do, many of the details of this parable into the present situation in Germany, picturing not one but thousands sorely wounded, and multitudes passing by on the other side, with eyes looking up to heaven but with heads purposely averted and the Jews, lying there stript, groaning, needing neighborly help?

You and I are in that unharmed multitude. Have you and I the courage to act the part of the Good Samaritan—the stranger—who took pity on the unfortunate human being? Will we bind up his wounds with whatever means we have and help him to a place where he can be restored to health and happiness?

Yes, it is your business and mine as Christians to come to the aid of our Jewish neighbors and fear not the robbers who abuse them and take their possessions anl leave them half dead.

A certain man was discussing the age-old problem of war and peace. He thought the American army should never leave the shores of the United States. He, himself would never fight in a foreign war, but if some enemy invaded this country and threatened to attack his own wife and children he would feel obliged to shoulder a gun and help repel the invadors. Indeed, such would be his Christian duty.

But somehow, his attitude left me cold. Since when has Christianity taught that one should save himself and his own family but never exert himself to save his neighbor and his family? Said the Christ, "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." The word neighbor here means anyone in the world who needs our help—the Ethiopian, the Chinese, the Jew. As a Christian you must regard him as you do yourself, and you must therefore be just as interested in defending him and his family from assault as you are in defending your own.

You may call me a militarist. Militarist or no militarist, I am sure that this attitude is much nearer Christianity than the selfish one, "I would fight only to defend my family." How can a Christian be satisfied with a defense which affords protection only to his own family? Must he not insist upon a defense that will afford protection also to his neighbor's family? How can a Christian be happy on some little island of security while his neighbors are left the victims of aggression and hate?

An isolitionist policy may be worldly wise—I have my doubt about that—but there is one thing sure: it has no connection with Christianity.

Grant us grace our Heavenly Father to contend fearlessly against evil and to make no peace with oppression, and that we may reverently use our freedom, help us to employ it in the maintenance of justice among men and nations to the glory of thy Holy Name. Amen.

Attendance Large At Legion Program

A large crowd of three hundred or more attended the Armistice Day dinner given by the American Legion at the Ada Henderson school cafeteria on last Friday.

A drum and bugle chore, composed of sons of war veterans was in attendance from Rockdale. At eleven o'clock a volley was fired and a parade was formed to march to the cafeteria.

Guest speakers for the day included John Weid of Rockdale, Rev. T. F. O'Sullivan, pastor of St. Michael's Church, Burlington, Congressman W. R. Poage and the Fourth Division Commander from Waco. The main themes in the addresses of the speakers were "Preparedness" and "Americanism."

The program began at eleven a. m. and was concluded at two in the afternoon. A dance given at National Hall Friday night was well attended by members of the Legion and their friends.

Mrs. Gus Evans Seriously Injured In Car Accident

Mrs. Gus Evans of Cameron was seriously injured Sunday morning when the car in which she was riding with her husband and his sister collided with another car on the Waco highway near Travis.

Mrs. Evans' nose was broken and her ankle was broken and burised. Her face was also badly cut in several places. She was rushed to the local hospital for treatment.

Mr. Evans suffered injuries on his shoulder and his sister was slightly injured in the accident. They were en route to Valley Mills, the home of Miss Evans when the accident occurred. Miss Evans was returning to her home after a visit with her brother and his family here.

The accident occurred at a cross road when a car approaching in the opposite direction stopped for a left turn and another car coming too fast to stop and not in time to go around the car ahead of it was thrown directly in the path of the Evans' car. The Evans car struck the other car on the side and turned it over. The engine of the Evans' car was caved in by the impact. The occupants of the other car suffered no serious injuries.

Mrs. Evans is under a physician's care in the Cameron hospital and is reported to be improving nicely.

Tom Davis, who is employed in the state hospital at Sanitorium, Texas, and a former Cameron citizen, was a visitor to this city on Saturday.

"Light Conditioning," says Glowy Penny, the Prince of Light and Gaiety, "means having the right amount and the right kind of light to give you perfect eye-comfort in your home.

"For reading you need more light than you do when you're visiting or listening to the radio, for instance. Sewing is another task which calls for plenty of concentrated light. When playing games you want light that is well distributed so that all players can see plainly and without eye-strain.

"Regardless of what you may be doing . . reading, working, playing or visiting . . . glaring light causes eye-strain, headaches and nervousness. Where there is glare there is no light conditioning.

"Remedy? Ask us for a Sight-Meter test in your home. Then shop at local stores handling electrical things for 'IES' Better Sight Lamps. Light up and live! Better Light is the greatest low-cost luxury in the world at the new low rates for TP&L service.

"By the way . . that wonderfully illustrated book, 'Recipes for Better Living,' tells you how to light condition your home for beauty, health, economy and protection. Ask your electrical dealer for your FREE COPY today."

Miss Mary Jistel of Cameron became the bride of Frank Klement also of Cameron in a double ring ceremony performed Tuesday morning, at eight o'clock at St. Monica's Catholic Church here with Father George Apel officiating. The attendants preceded the bride and groom to the alter in the following order: Miss Louise Jistel and Edmund Schattle Miss Katherine Klement and Carl Hertenberger, Miss Agnes Jistel and Herbert Schattle and the bride and groom followed all taking their places at the beautiful altar of St. Monica's church for the double ring ceremony. The bride was beautiful in a white velvet wedding dress over which she wore a floor length veil. A lovely flower trimmed bandeau softly framed her face. The dress was beautifully cut with a fitted waist and tiny covered buttons from the neck to the waist line. The skirt was long and full and was beautiful and stately looking on the bride. She carried a wedding bouquet of white gladiolas and bridal wreath. The bride maids, two of whom were the bride's twin sisters, Misses Louise and Agnes Jistel were dressed alike in becoming bright blue floor length dresses and carried bouquet of pink Gladiolus. Miss Katherine Klement, sister of the groom was dressed in bright red, floor length dress and also carried a bouquet of pink gladiolus. The bride is the daughter of Fred Jistel and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Klement. Tuesday night the young couple with a large number of their friends were entertained with a dance in the home of the parents. Mr. and Mrs. Klement will make their home at Ad Hall. They have a host of friends in Cameron and Milam county who wish for them a wedded life of much happiness.

A luncheon honoring Mrs. F. F. Kirby of Waco, state president of the Ladies' Medical Auxiliary, was given in the home of Mrs. C. G. Brindley on Monday afternoon, October 31, at one o'clock with Mrs. Brindley and Mrs. W. R. Newton, Jr., as hostesses. Following the luncheon, Mrs. Kirby gave a discussion on "How Doctors Wives can Help Promote Health Education." Eleven members of the Milam County auxiliary were present and one visitor, Mrs. Warren of Waco, besides Mrs. Kirby the honoree.

Co-hostesses, when the 42 Leisure Club entertained their husbands on Monday night, November 14, were Mrs. Steve Marak and Mrs. Leo Stecher. The party was given in the home of Mrs. Steve Marak. There were seven tables to enjoy the games of the evening. The home was attractively decorated with a Thanksgiving color scheme, little pumpkins, serving as tally cards and rakes and shovels, representing the harvest, being the souvenirs. Table cuts were turkeys stuffed with candy and the linen, napkins and other decorations were representative of Thanksgiving. High score for the men went to L. F. Slama, second high to Alvin Matula, high for the ladies went to Mrs. G. V. Schiller, second high to Mrs. Dryer. Individual pies were served to the guests at the conclusion of the evening.

Mrs. C. W. Lawrence and daughter, Mrs. Fred Jackson and children, attended the unveiling of the Pioneer Monument on 12th street in Austin. There are about 300 names inscribed on the West side of the broze monument, and among them is the name of the late C. Walter Lawrence, father of Mrs. Fred Jackson, and late husband of Mrs. C. W. Lawrence of this city. The erection of the monument is to the descendents of the pioneer builders of Texas. Mayor Tom Miller of Austin had charge of the ceremony and urged the descendents to rededicate themselves to the principals of democracy and liberty won by their forefathers at Goliad, The Alamo and San Jacinto.

Miss Lily Kate Beckerman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Beckerman of Cameron, became the bride of Samuel Louis Porter of Pittsburg in a ceremony performed at seven o'clock Tuesday morning, November 15, in the Baptist parsonage at Pittsburg. Rev. S. H. Maples, pastor of the First Baptist Church there and Rev. J. Coy Williams, who was until just recently pastor of the Methodist Church here, officiated at the ceremony. The bride was becomingly dressed in a black tailored wool with jacket trimmed in and having kidskin sleeves. Her accessories were of black suede and she wore an attractive corsage of miniature white chrysanthemums. Her mother, Mrs. F. J. Beckerman of Cameron, Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Maples were present for the wedding. The bride is well known and has many friends here and also has many friends in Hearne where she taught school for a number of years. Mr. and Mrs. Porter will make their home in Pittsburg where Mr. Porter is employed as agent for the American Railway Express.

Nearly 1/2 of telephone expenses in Texas goes for wages...

Out of more than 23¼ million dollars spent by the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company to provide telephone service in Texas last year, about 10 million dollars . . . nearly half . . . went for wages. Wages to 9,000 telephone people, who in turn spent most of that money in Texas.

Telephone wages play no small part in keeping the state's business moving. And by assuring telephone users of the services of skilled, efficient people, they play a large part in giving you good telephone service at reasonable cost. Southwestern Bell Telephone Company.

His Life Story

Reproduced from

The Dallas News

Of the varied types of programs given by us on the air those devoted to the special days set aside in honor of individuals and hitoric occasions have ever been interesting at least to us. These have ranged from the set holidays established in the centuries to the newer celebrations in honor of mother.

Who of us is not insirped by the beginning of each year to try to make the next twelve months more worthwhile? The close of the Centennial year led me to say this on the radio:

In closing, let us wish for each and every one of you out younder and all those who are near and dear to you the complete realization of your fondest hopes during the new year of 1937. There is one continuing rule we should long carry with us. Remember that friendship is today the greatest force on the earth except one—religion. If your plans for 1936 failed, let me offer you a new set of suggested rules for 1937 classic:

First, engage in legitimate undertakings. They last longer.

Second, make friends— and they will add greatly to your happiness.

Third, take good care of your body. It is the only one you will ever have.

Fourth, follow the fine points as printed in the Ten Commandments. No better rules have been discovered during the past 2,000 years.

Fifth, take God as your silent partner in all your undertakings. He will put up with you longer than any other partner.

Quotes Mrs. Crowell's Poem

Texas is unusually blessed to have one of the great poets now living in her midst. This is Grace Noll Crowell, who was honored by the Nation this year as America's ideal mother. Her mangnificent poems have been the inspiration of millions. None of her works is more beautiful than her "Prayer for the New Year." This expresses so well the spirit of the new year and what we hope to convey to our uncounted friends of radioland that with her permission I quote this beautiful poem:

PRAYER FOR THE NEW YEAR.

White as the fields that lie before our eyes,
Far-reaching and unbroken in the light,
The New Year lies ahead—God, make wise;
God help us keep the new days clean and white.

Across this broad uncharted land we need
Thy guiding hand, Thy constant loving care;
Give us our daily bread on which to feed;
Give us clear water, and the pure, sweet air;

May we have strength for work, the will to play,
The time for neighborliness, and rest at night;
Grant us new hope and courage day by day,
And help us keep the lamp of faith alight.

Help us sow and reap not grain alone.
But joy from service, peace from trusting Thee,
God, make this year the best year we have known;
A shining portion of eternity.

In facing the new year, I would say to the younger folks that the whole future of our lives can be alated by decisions within our power. Even us older folks, if we try, can use our will power to wipe out tiny "sot" ways that may have developed up to date, although for many older folks it is too late to change your ways.

Let us banish fear from our lives. Very little was ever accomplished when fear predominated. The fate of America lies in the younger generation—those in the springtime of 1914 when the first shot of the World War reverberated around the world. It has increased ever since. We feared democracy was sunk and millions were killed to save it. We feared we would never collect our war debts. They are still unpaid and perhaps always will remain so.

We feared another war, and the world today is mortgaging generations to come to build bigger was implements. War will come. The aftermath of reckless spending and reckless living during the war brought depression, which was only intensified fear.

And now practically the whole thought and effort of our Nation and State Legislatures is to allay the fear that is uppermost in the minds of most of us that we shall starve to death in old age. Laws are being passed to prevent that starvation. And if the results of fear, legislation and action run true to form as reported in all history, there is the danger that something will hapen to take away that which the Government is trying to accumulate and take it at just the time when we get to the point where we need it most. So we must banish fear. We need a generation of fearless Americans and you boys and girls in school are our only hope.

Don't catch the fear fever. There is only one vaccine that will make you immune. And that is a full and complete inoculation of pure, old-time religion. Get right with God. I am not a preacher. I am talking purely from a commercial standpoint. No commercial contract is worth the paper it is written on unless the parties who signed it have the fear of God in their hearts and the hope of heaven in mind. No Legislature on earth is, or ever will be, effective unless the majority of those behind it have the fear of God in their hearts and the hope of heaven in mind.

Friends, I am not unmindful of the thousands of good Christian folks in America. I am thankful there are so many. I am not criticizing or condemning anybody who does not believe in or practice religion. That is their right and their privilege, and no little man has the right to criticize or condemn, but during these brief remarks I have only tried to convince the boys and girls of this Nation that they will get along better, be happier, and accomplish more if they base their lives and actions on the pure, old-time religion.

Next Week—The Great Example.

Pioneer Reader of Cameron Centinel Subscribes for Herald

G. T. Hightower, for 61 years a resident of Milam county and an old time reader of the Cameron Herald, was a visitor in the office on Saturday. 61 years ago, Mr. Hightower came to Cameron from Alabama. At that time Cameron was a small village, with sandy streets. That was in 1961 and the Herald had been running for about one year as the Cameron Centinel. Mr. Hightower was a subscriber to the Cemeron Centinel and while he has not been on the reader's list of the Herald for some time the publishers are happy to welcome him again among the pioneers who have relied upon this old journal through more than 75 years. Mr. Hightower is the father of a number of sons and the head of a large family of good citizens in Milam county.

Miss Berenice McLerran spent the week end at home with per parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. McLerran. Miss Berenice is now with the Federal Department of Social Security at Austin.

HARD WINTER AHEAD

Scientists predict this from studies of long range weather forecasting

So give heating equipment some extra attention

Cold weather predictions warn us to shake the moth balls from our long underwear and give extra attention to heating equipment.

Employees of your gas company worked all year in preparing for your comfort this winter. They recognize their responsibility to you in providing dependable service under every possible condition. By checking the working efficiency of your own appliances you complete this field work in making your gas service the helpful, comforting, economical servant you desire.

You've SAVED . . .

● This predicted hard winter is late in getting started. With October one of the warmest on record, you've saved enough in gas service charges to make substantial payment on improved gas heating equipment. See the new circulating room heaters and prepare for the treacherous months ahead.

"America Worth Loving" Says O'Sullivan in Rotary Club Address Here

America is worth loving as one of the few nations that has not been touched by the doctrines of totalitarianism, said Rev. T. F. O'Sullivan in an address before the Cameron Rotary Club last Wednesday.

The Burlington pastor recently returned from a trip to Europe but did not speak of his travels. He said that communism is threatening the foundations of this country as well as that of other countries and people over the nation should be aroused to patriotic appreciation of the constitution of the United States and its guarantee of religious and civil liberties. The address was well received and generously applauded. Rev. O'Sullivan in part said:

My thanks to the Rotarians for their kind invitation to speak to them today. Whenever I speak to a group of leaders in any community, I am always anxious to give them a message of importance if I possibly can.

Needless to say we are living in an important period in the world's history. The world today I think is a complaining world. In your own walk of life, you know perhaps how the public complains. Just to mention a few they complain about the doctor when they say he is too professional to be charitable; they complain about the minister and the priest when they say they are too money-minded to be spiritual; and so on down to the butcher and baker.

One thing sure today is the fact that the world is complaining because of spiritual, social and economic sickness. Twenty years have passed since the last zero hour brought an end to the greatest human slaughter the world has ever seen. The war to end wars had been won, international justice was to be served. What empty promises and vain hopes in the light of the last twenty years! Still fresh in mind are the events of the past few months that brought the nation of Europe perilously near a repetition of the bloodshed of the world war. It was General Washington who warned us to keep out of foreign alliances and to have nothing to do with political squabbles of Europe. Today we see more clearly than we did then the value of his prudent counsel. Armistice Day is the reminder of the price of war and the blessings of peace.

We have work to do here, surrounded as we are by a complaining world of dictators and totalitarian states. We must be vigilant against the threat of internal dissention and alien propaganda. The men who fought in the war and whose sacrifice brought the victory that began with the Armistice have demonstrated their hatred and detestation of the un-American and subversive forces in our midst. They have been outspoken in their opposition to Communism and other undemocratic ideals. Armistice Day and its memories should rally all Americans to their standard.

Everyone should know that the American League for Peace and Democracy which claims a membership of 4,300,000 is under Communist contact even if the majority of its membership has the notion that it is nothing more than an organization to promote peace.

What I am trying to tell you gentlemen is the fact that there are many movements on foot today working under the fair name of democracy with the sole purpose of changing the United States into a totalitarian country under the ultimate dictatorship of Red Moscow. The founding fathers of our republic did not blindly accept any form of Democracy, but only a constitutional democracy. This meant that although the majority elects its representative, it can not for that reason tyranize over the minority. The majority always remains restricted by constitutional limitations, which are the safeguards of individual men and of the individual states.

"In God We Trust" must be the first word and the last word of Democracy.

FARM CLUB NEWS

Mrs. Henry Woods
Smyrna Home Dem. Club,
Milano, Texas, Rt. 1:

The Smyrna Home Demonstration Club held their third meeting in the home of Mrs. Charlie Morgan Monday afternoon October 31st with our Agent, Miss Dorothy Porter with us. A very enjoyable afternoon was spent by all. We studied the ways and means of getting water in and out of homes, also protecting your water from typhoid germs and how to control the spread of them. There were 13 members and 2 visitors present.

The club also gave a box supper Thursday evening, October 27th with a very good attendance. The club made a net profit of $9.95.

Miss Porter met at the home of our kitchen and poultry demonstrators Tuesday morning November 1st giving plans for kitchen improvements and building poultry houses.

B SQUAD NEWS

Staving off four thrusts of the strong Rogers Eagles, the Cameron B Squad last Thursday played an exceptionally good game to hold the Rogers team to a scoreless tie. The Eagles were soundly outplayed for three and one-half quarters, and it was not until the last thirty seconds of the fourth period that the Rogers boys threatened the Cameron goal, driving then only as far as Cameron's 35 yard stripe, where the ball went over to the B squad. Featuring Holloway and Price on the offense, Patterson's men played their best defensive game of the season, allowing the heavy Rogers team only one scoring threat on the 35. Thompson, end, captained for the local boys, and Price, whose kicking accounted for much of Cameron's yardage, Holloway in the backfield and Sevick in the line were outstanding.

Tonight at 7:45 the Cameron B and the strong Sharp team tangle for the final game on Patterson's schedule. Cameron lost to the Sharp boys several weeks ago, but tonight's game may go to either team, so come out and see the last game of the Cameron B Squad. Admission 10c and 15c.

Dr. B. C. Herring Guest Speaker Here

Dr. B. C. Herring, professor of Bible at Baylor University, Waco spoke at the First Baptist Church here Sunday in the absence of Rev. Vernon G. Miles, pastor, who was attending the Baptist General Convention of Texas held in Dallas.

Dr. Herring chose for his discussion a comparison between churches of New Testament times and the churches of today. He brought out the need of churches of today to take as their pattern and example the churches of the time of Christ.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

"Soul and Body" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, November 20.

The Golden Text is: "Yea, in the way of thy judgments, O Lord, have we waited for thee; the desire of our soul is to thy name, and to the rememberance of thee" (Isaiah 26:8.)

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "My soul, wait thou only upon God; for my expectation is from him" (Psalms 62:5.)

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Soul is the substance, Life, and intelligence of man, which is individualized, but not in matter. Soul can never reflect anything inferior to Spirit. Man is the expression of Soul" (page 477.)

Ad Hall Football Team Defeats Seaton

The Ad Hall football team defeated the Seaton team 13 to 0 in the best game the Ad Hall boys have played this year on Thursday, Nov. 10th at Ad Hall. Jedlicks made the first touchdown in the first two minutes of the game. The full back for Seaton was injured in the second quarter and was out of the game until the last quarter.

Pfarrdrescher intercepted a pass and made a touchdown and a pass to Mikula made the extra point. Stasa, Vaculin, James and Gerick played good football.

Ad Hall's basketball team defeated the Ben Arnold team 14 to 9 in a recent game. Joe Vaculin was high point man for Ad Hall.

New Pastor Delivers Initial Sermon Here

Rev. A. J. McCary, newly appointed pastor for the First Methodist Church of Cameron, delivered his first sermon here on Sunday, Nov. 13th. A large crowd of members and visitors attended the initial service of the new pastor. There was one addition to the church in the evening service.

Rev. McCary was formerly Presiding elder of the Jacksonville district, and prior to that was pastor of a Houston Methodist church. Cameron is happy to welcome this new leader and hopes he will be happy in his new home.

ing Niley J. Smith as he unfolded his tale of progress made through long years of arduous work in overcoming prejudice existing among Texas farmers over plans for improving their soil by means of terracing.

Mr. Hone's address was thoroughly applauded. He discussed the work now being done and told of plans during early January to carry a campaign of education to Texas farmers through the medium of the press, pulpit and public forum.

The Cameron Rotary club will feature speakers on farm conservation during that period. On Wednesday P. W. Davis was toastmaster and introduced Mr. Hone. At the opening of the meeting Miss Ida Byrd Mayfield, Rotary sweetheart, played the piano as the Rotarians, 100 per cent in attendance, faced the American flag and sang America. At the conclusion of the meal, Mr. Davis led the Rotarians in another song fest.

The guest list for the day included Joe Moore of Gause, famous left fielder for the New York giants and a member of the Hearne Rotary club. Joe got a big hand when he was introduced by Dr. Clifford Swift, president of the club. Other guests were J. West Nichols of Waco, introduced by Stanley Swift, Rev. A. J. McCary new pastor of the Methodist church a guest of Rev. J. P. Love and Miss Maude Stevenson of Del Rio, daughter of the past president of the Rotary club in that city and a guest of John Copley; A. M. Miller of Houston insurance executive and a guest of Dr. W. R. Newton.

Flowers for the table were furnished by Lester Glass member of the club. At the conclusion of the meeting a meeting with the board of directors was held in the lounge room adjoining the banquet hall at which time plans for the progress of the club were discussed.

Large Attendance at Pythian's Open House

The open house meeting of the Knights of Pythias Lodge 125, held here last Thursday night was declared to be one of the best meetings held in this state by Supreme and Grand Lodge officers.

Emory B. Camp, master of ceremonies, called the meeting to order and Rev. Maurice Grove gave the invocation. A welcoming address was given by Judge Graham Gillis, who introduced Claude Shearr, Grand Lodge officer, who in turn introduced Ora E. Clark, Supreme Lodge officer, who was the principal speaker of the evening.

Other speakers included Weylon C. Frazier, Grand Chancellor of the Knights of Pythias of Texas, Hon. O. H. Cross of Waco, Mr. Boyd of Bryan, M. G. Cox and J. W. Haygood of Cameron. Out of town lodges represented were Bryan, Waco, and Fort Worth.

Cake, coffee and chocolate were served at the conclusion of the meeting. The coffee was furnshed by the Duncan Coffee Company through the courtesy of their representative, Wallace N. Davis. Flowers which decorated the hall were supplied by Glass the Florist. Everyone reported having, had a wonderful time. The meeting was dismissed by Rev. O. C. Acrey.

Feature Film

whatever it wants whenever it wants to.

In their old New York home, presided over by Grandpa Vanderhof, this uninhibited group reveals a heart-warming attitude toward life in a merry melange of comedy, flavored with romance and tinged with pathos.

"You Can't Take It With You" is concerned, in part, with the proud aristocratic Kirbys, as well as with the carefree Vanderhofs. Kirby's monumental plan to form a huge munitions merger, a move which requires the purchase of all property within an area of twelve city blocks, is halted when Grandpa refuses to sell the Vanderhof home at any price. The plan of Kirby's son to marry Alice Sycamore, his secretary, is blocked when the boy brings his parents to dinner one night, only to discover the Vanderhof family engrossed in its various eccentric affairs.

The romance and merry-mad conflict of the two families, coupled with the enjoyable hobbies of the Vanderhofs and their many friends, is declared to make "You Can't Take It With You" one of the outstanding productions of the season.

Prominent in the supporting cast of the new Capra film are Spring Byington, Samuel S. Hinds, Dud Taylor, Donald Meek, H. B. Warner, Halliwell Hobbes, Eddie Anderson and Lillian Yarbo. Dimitri Tiomkin composed the musical score.
